

Be Encouraged (His Refreshing is Coming)

Isaiah 43:1-13

Be Encouraged! The Word of God reminds us repeatedly God is with, ahead and for us. These words do not just make us feel good about ourselves, but it is also a challenge to be something more.

Setting the Scene:

"But now" Vs 1 Israel has been revealed as blind (42:19), inattentive (42:20), falling short of the Lord's plan (42:21), defeated (42:2), sinfully disobedient (42:24), spiritually uncomprehending and insensitive (42:25).! Created ... formed: the verbs are used in their established sense, the former to bring into being, de novo, by a sole and free act of God, and the latter to fashion and mould into shape as a potter would. So the Lord determined to have a people for his very own, brought them into being, and shaped them on the wheel of circumstances.¹

⁵ God, the LORD, created the heavens and stretched them out. He created the earth and everything in it. He gives breath to everyone, life to everyone who walks the earth... ¹⁷But those who trust in idols, who say, 'You are our gods,' will be turned away in shame. Isaiah 42:5,17 (The human heart is a perpetual idol factory.)

- Encourage: to inspire with courage, spirit, or hope.

Hebrew: Chazaq (khaw-zak') to strengthen, prevail, harden, be strong, become strong, be courageous, be firm, grow firm, be resolute, be stout.²

⁹ I took you from the ends of the earth, from its farthest corners I called you. I said, 'You are my servant'; I have chosen you and have not rejected you. ¹⁰ So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand. Isaiah 41:9-10

- Our culture confuses the word encourage with complement and praising others. This can be part of the story, but it does not cover the full definition. It is more than saying nice things to others. Biblically it is pouring into someone, instill confidence to be something more. It is coming alongside someone to teach, comfort, strengthen their faith, and change their behavior.
- Christ Followers share with others what they need to hear, not what they want to hear.

The Greek word for "encourage," parakaleo, means to call alongside The Ephesian believers are "begged or implored" to lead a life worthy of their calling. This is calling for a change of behavior. ³ Notice this is a word used for the Holy Spirit. HE is calling us out to go where He desires. It is awakening or conscience to change wrong behavior.

Therefore I, a prisoner for serving the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of your calling, for you have been called by God. ² Always be humble and gentle. Be patient with each other, making allowance for each other's faults because of your love. ³ Make every effort to keep yourselves united in the spirit, binding yourselves together with peace. Ephesians 4:1-3

¹¹ So encourage each other and build each other up, just as you are already doing. 1 Thessalonians 5:1
